Beckley House: Limited Income - Elderly Apartments

Beckley House is a 24-unit elderly housing facility managed by Elderly Housing Management located on the Geer Campus. Built in 2000, it was built on the site of the original Geer Hospital. Rents are based on income levels established for the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Residents are selected in compliance with HUD standards.

All one bedroom apartments feature a separate kitchen, a full bath, and living, dining room. In addition to the 24 apartments, Beckley House features a library, lounge and TV room, a large community room and on-site management. A rental assistance contract with the federal government provides that the rent for each resident will be calculated at 30% of adjusted income. Currently, the income from all sources is not to be more than $24,950 for one person and $28,500 for two persons. Apartments are now available for rent.
